

Meet my Lab x JFS

Clean, Accessible and Secure Energy Supply

Wednesday, 20 March 2024

09:00 - 11:00 CET/15:00 - 17:00 Bangkok

PROJECT OVERVIEW

BACKGROUND & OBJECTIVE

Meet My Lab x JFS is a project series organised by EURAXESS ASEAN and the Southeast Asia-Europe Joint Funding Scheme for Research and Innovation (JFS). Taking place online, the project invites promising researchers & innovators from ASEAN and Europe at the beginning of their career to present their laboratories in a live session, exchange ideas with the audience and explore opportunities for international research collaboration.

PROGRAMME

Each event features 3 researchers and focuses on one specific research topic which is aligned with ongoing Open Calls for Proposals that are funded either under Horizon Europe or the JFS.

During the virtual lab tours and the following discussion with the audience, the speakers will:

- provide an overview of their main area of research
- showcase the physical space and facilities of their laboratory
- introduce their team and working environment
- explain experimental techniques, methodologies, and approaches used
- highlight achievements and significant findings achieved by the lab
- share possible areas for collaboration and partnerships

In addition, EURAXESS ASEAN and the JFS will provide updates on selected ongoing and/or upcoming funding and networking opportunities.

OPEN CALL FOR SPEAKER PARTICIPATION

Speakers will be selected through an Open Call for Application process. To apply, interested candidates have to send their CV and contact details together with a short description of their research topic and a 3 min. video pitch on their laboratory.
